Sears Special Did It!

J. Lloyd Doss hopes to get about two thousand pounds of tobacco to the acre on this acre planting of Sears Special dark tobacco. He lives about three and one-half miles from Oakville off Rt. 26. He has additional leaf acreage but says he is particularly intersted to see how his Sears Special makes it on the dark leaf market.

Maude's Honors Athletes Of Week

There's a dinner waiting at Maude's for 'Back of the Week', Lee Conner (left) and 'Lineman of the Week', Steve Lawson (right), Maude's through David Notestein, manager, has announced that each week during the season, selected football players of Appomattox County High School will be treated to dinner. Coach Jerry Robinson said "Lee Conner held the Buccaneer to 47 yards on the ground. Even though he was double teamed for most of the game he managed to get in on 60% of the tackles. It's a pleasure to have the opportunity to coach boys like this." The coach also praised Steve Lawson for playing an "outstanding game." He said he is looking for a future performance to equal or surpass that of Friday night, "Steve seems to be a stalwart of the middle of the line and is well deserving of honors for effort both offensively and defensively."

Some corn seed supply situations the moment appears critical in 1971. Major seed producers are meeting in Chicago on Thursday to determine the [illegible] and will present a report to the Secretary of Agriculture on the 14th. Hopefully from this information to [illegible] in an early date.

There is a real concern that [illegible] will not be a sufficient supply of seed corn to meet the demand. We're thinking that now a hybrid must be resistant or tolerant of Southern Corn Leaf Blight, [illegible] corn presently used in the area can be divided into [illegible] categories.

1. Those produced by detasseling [illegible] parent, These hybrids are susceptible to Southern Leaf Blight.

2. Those produced by using [illegible] female parents, These hybrids are susceptible to Southern Leaf Blight.

The recommended seed of the above [illegible] is such a blended hybrid or [illegible] mixed in its reaction to Southern Leaf Blight. That is [illegible] from the first seed [illegible] are resistant and plants [illegible] male sterile parents are susceptible.

A letter outlining in detail the possibility of saving corn seed from the 1970 crop was mailed all farmers earlier this week.

DIAL GOOD NEWS

Nine-Pounder From Local Pond

Last Thursday was a lucky day for fishing for Mrs. Vern Cole. She caught this nine pound catfish in a local pond. With her on the fishing trip was Mrs. Lawrence Hudson. Even a bit of car trouble on the way home failed to get them "down." They're ready to go again, and especially on fishing days as balmy as several last week.

LAWSON FORD, INC.
ANNOUNCES
1971 PINTO & 1971 MAVRICK
WILL BE ON DISPLAY
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

THE REMAINDER
OF 1971 CARS AND TRUCKS WILL DEBUT THE FOLLOWING, FRIDAY, SEPT. 18

Pinto sports the flair and style of its stablemates — Mustang and Maverick — while targeting in directly on the size and economy characteristics of the leading imported cars.

Smallest of the domestic subcompacts, Pinto is four inches longer, eight inches wider and seven inches lower than the leading import. Ford Division's spacious "mini" car also offers more interior room, including five inches more rear seat knee room and six inches more front seat shoulder room.

PINTO RALLYE

2-DOOR PINTO

MAVRICK 4-DR SEDAN

This two-door sedan is powered by a front-mounted, 75-horsepower 1600 - cubic centimeter (97.6 cubic inch) engine. The optional power plant is a 2000 - cc (122 cubic inch) overhead cam engine rated at 100 horsepower.

Standard features include a floor-mounted, four - speed, fully - synchronized transmission; sports - car - type rack and pinion steering; bucket seats, and 15 colors ranging from Pinto Gold to Model T black.

MAVRICK 2-DR. SEDAN

Now nearing the half million mark in sales, Maverick for 1971 adds a four-door model and a Grabber sport sedan to its original two-door offering.

The new four-door model is seven inches longer than the two-door. The inches in length has substantially increased rear seat leg room.

The sporty Grabber sedan, a car that says performance on the outside but economy under the hood, features rallye-type road lamps and twin non-functional hood scoops on a specially-painted hood.
